About Our Honoree

Susan C. Scrimshaw, Ph.D. has served as president of The Sage Colleges since 2008, and is responsible for leading Sage through a dramatic reinvigoration including growing enrollment, expanded academic programs, renewed fiscal health, increased visibility and diversity, and a highly successful Centennial campaign that is nearing a successful conclusion. In addition to her academic accomplishments, Susan has been a great friend to the City of Troy, and to the Music Hall through her support of our programming and initiatives. We appreciate her unwavering dedication to enriching the community we serve.

About The Concert

Branford Marsalis is a National Endowment of the Arts Jazz Master, a renowned Grammy Award winning saxophonist, and Tony Award winning composer, and has widely been considered to be one of the more revered instrumentalists of our time. Grammy Award winner Kurt Elling is among the world's foremost jazz vocalists, named the Jazz Journalists Association's Male Singer of the Year on eight occasions, and has won the DownBeat Critics Poll for an astonishing fourteen consecutive years. In 2015, the pair came together to create a Grammy nominated collaborative album entitled Upward Spiral, containing songs selected for their melodic richness and unique musical quality. Only participants in our Gala will have access to the very best seats in the house, not available for sale to the general public!

About The Troy Savings Bank Music Hall

Founded in 1979, the Troy Savings Bank Music Hall Corporation is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to enriching the cultural life of the Capital Region by presenting performances that showcase the world class acoustics of the beautiful and historic Troy Savings Bank Music Hall. The Music Hall was originally built in 1875 as a gift to the City of Troy, and we strive to continue this "gift" by presenting free concerts, education programs, and community events throughout the year. Events like the annual gala, along with our corporate sponsors and individual donors help sustain our initiatives throughout the year.
