Education Programs: Go Virtual

When our school partners were forced to close their doors, we seamlessly transitioned our education programs to a virtual format. In fact, during the 2020/2021 school year we were able to expand our education programming by nearly 300% - providing a greater number of students with an opportunity to express themselves creatively during a uniquely challenging time.

21st Century After School Program

Teaching Artists:

Jordan Taylor Hill, Ellen Sinopoli, Quintocracy, Nichole Rogers, Sanctuary for Independent Media, Zam Strumfeld, Jamel Mosley, Lauren Driscoll, Rhonda Ratray, Akiva Benbow, Kyra Gaunt, Troy Prep High, Sanctuary for Independent Media, Youth FX, Connor Armbruster, Capital Roots, Katrina Driscoll-Hastings, Carolyn Shapiro

Troy Prep High School 2.0 Program

Teaching Artists:

Sanctuary for Independent Media, Youth FX, Connor Armbruster, Capital Roots, Katrina Driscoll-Hastings, Carolyn Shapiro

Quintocracy Education Program

Sponsored by National Grid. We hosted three hour long, free virtual education sessions that explored the inner workings of a wind quintet.

Recording Sessions

Many artists took advantage of their down time, and the availability of our stage, to utilize the Hall and its amazing acoustics to record albums and music videos, leading to new partnerships that will continue for years to come.

Communication & Community

In March of 2020, as the world was shutting down, we launched our weekly newsletter, The Beat, which became a popular, funny, and poignant way to stay connected with our audience and gain new fans.

Our community had so many wonderful things to say about The Beat:

"Kudos and many thanks for your weekly emails with interesting and entertaining items to keep us going as we fight COVID. Your wonderfully creative and hard working staff have made the social distancing and isolating months a bit more bearable."

"Thank you for your wonderful emails during the shutdown and slow re-opening."

"Your weekly e-newsletters have been such a joy to receive. In these times of frightening news, Music Hall emails are something to look forward to."

"You've rocked right through this thing. Thank you!"

In Memoriam

The Music Hall mourns the loss and honors the memory of these great supporters and friends of the Hall. They are deeply missed and fondly remembered by colleagues, family, and loved ones.
